ALTO

Abundant feasts go hand in hand with Ecology's Alto range. This grazing series is made of rubberwood and features a soft grain and refined edges to let your food do all the talking.

ORIGIN

Origin delivers Ecology's original white-to-white range, reimagined for today's modern dining.

SOL

Bask in the sun-inspired motif of the Sol glassware collection. The machine pressed, textured pattern offers a vintage charm, while the balanced shape and durable glass ensures each piece is crafted to last.

MALTA - LINEN SERVEWARE

An extension to our much loved Malta range. The serveware pieces in this collection further enhance the versatility of Malta Linen, making it the ideal serving companion.

SYLVAN

This range of stoneware pieces, designed by Heather Piez, features classic Christmas cheer with plum pudding, holly, cherries and gingerbread men nestled together in a raised relief pattern.

MALTA - CAMEL

Our much loved Malta dinnerware is now available in Caramel. Made of stoneware, Malta Caramel displays a matte finish over a toasted golden hue, blending out to a faded rim.

SPRING / SUMMER 2021-2022

CLASSIC

Sourced from one of Europe's leading glassware manufacturers, Ecology Classic offers an extensive core glassware range. This season the Classic range expands with a cocktail coupe, hurricane glass, craft beer and Nick & Nora glass.

CLEMENTINE - NAPERY

The Clementine napery selection offers all the necessary pieces to sprinkle your kitchen in charming floral goodness.

GLACIER

A distinctive narrow shape and rounded base form the Glacier drinkware collection. Each piece features a prominent hammered finish that adds texture and uniqueness to every glass.

CLEMENTINE - TINS

The printed cake tins are perfect for taking your baked goods on the road, while the recipe tin will keep all those family recipes organised in the one place.

MALTA - SHERBET

Our much loved Malta dinnerware is now available in Sherbet. Made of stoneware, Malta Sherbet displays a matte finish over a warm sunset orange and a gently faded rim.

CLEMENTINE - TABLETOP & KITCHEN PREP

This expansive collection showcases flowers in sunny, peachy tones, offset by sage green highlights. Designed by Heather Piez, the designs evoke images of fragrant blooms and lush green fields.

EDEN - MARINE

Deep blue-green hues are washed over by darker indigo accents to create the unique colour variations of the Eden Marine range. This stoneware servingware collection features a reactive glaze that delivers a sense of movement and dimension.

MALTA - SKY

Our much loved Malta dinnerware is now available in Sky. Made of stoneware, Malta Sky displays a matte finish over a clear sky blue, and a faded pale rim.

OTTAWA - INDIGO

Inspired by ocean depths, Ottawa Indigo offers deep sapphire hues accentuated by paler circular highlights. Made of durable stoneware, the range features an organic shape, rustic edges and gentle ridging.

WEAVE

The delicate profile of the Weave glasses combines with the subtle mint green hue to create a sophisticated collection that elevates your everyday dining. A weave-inspired texture wraps around each glass, while the fine rims are left unadorned for a smooth drinking experience.

COVE

The rounded bases and thick rims create the distinctive shape of the Cove glassware. The bubble glass style is complimented by retro colours of amber and sea green for a true nostalgic feel, while the solid nature of each glass gives them a strong table presence.

FLO

This fascinating bubble-glass collection showcases brilliant colour chips that flow up and around, encircling each piece with a delightful sense of fun. These solid based glasses feature thick rims and a flat shape, anchored by a weighty form.

PLACEMATS

Ecology have handpicked some of their most popular designs to create this versatile collection of placemats. With full colour prints and a cork backing to protect any surface, there's a design to suit any décor.

EDEN - CORAL

Vibrant coral reef hues are washed over by seafoam whites to create the unique colour variations of the Eden Coral range. This stoneware servingware collection, in a dusty Coral, features a reactive glaze that delivers a sense of movement and dimension.

COASTERS

Ecology have handpicked some of their most popular designs to create this versatile collection of coasters. With full colour prints and a cork backing to protect any surface, there's a design to suit any décor.

PALETTE

Let your inner artist run free with the Palette serveware collection. Painted by Heather Piez, the abstract design features bright, punchy colours fading out to soft edges. The stoneware pieces incorporate sweet handles and distinctive legs that elevate these versatile pieces to centerpiece status.

SPECKLE - STRAIGHT MUGS

The Speckle design and colours you love, now available in a brand-new mug shape. These stoneware mugs feature the beautiful reactive glaze and dimpled texture that define the Speckle range, but in a straighter mug style and with a generous handle.

PUNCH - PEACH

Go bright and bold with a true colour explosion from Ecology's Punch collection. These generously-sized serving pieces are designed with alfresco gatherings and sun-drenched days in mind. The rich illustrations, painted by Elana Vanlier, feature juicy peaches offset by fern green leaves.

STRAND

Summer holidays lounging by the water, be it pool, beach or lakeside, are the sunny vibes that flow from the Strand collection. The sweet, paper-cup style of the New Bone pieces feature a prominent lip and vertical seam in a palette of warm, sunlit colours.

ARBOR

A flourishing, tree-inspired motif is the centrepiece of the Arbor glassware collection. The machine pressed, textured pattern offers a vintage charm, while the balanced shape and durable glass ensures each piece is crafted to last.

PUNCH - FIG

Go bright and bold with a true colour explosion from Ecology's Punch collection. These generously-sized serving pieces are designed with alfresco gatherings and sun-drenched days in mind. The rich illustrations, painted by Elana Vanlier, feature vivid figs nestled amongst prominent green leaves.

DWELL

Morning, afternoon or night, the Dwell mug will be right by your side. The organic shape and generous handle mean you won't think twice before reaching for your new favourite mug. Made of stoneware, these mugs feature both matte and gloss finishes.

RIPE

Ripe blends luscious fruit illustrations with playful gingham patterns to create a collection that's all about sunny days and relaxed summer picnics. Designed by Heather Piez, the strawberry and cherry designs present ripe summer fruits that can be enjoyed the whole year round.

SPECKLE - GOLD HANDLE MUGS

When you're after that added touch of glamour, you can't go past the Speckle gold handled mugs. Featuring a dimpled texture and reactive glaze that gives each piece a unique look, these tapered mugs are finished with a luxe gold painted handle perfect for gift-giving or to make your night time coffee that extra bit special.

CORE RANGES

SPECKLE RANGE

Organic in shape with a dimpled, tactile finish, Ecology's Speckle range has an earthy, wholesome feel. Designed in Australia and crafted from durable stoneware, the range offers a collection of coordinating tones ideal for creating your own individual combinations.

PROVISIONS RANGE

At Ecology, we've taken the humble kitchen utensil and turned it into a thing of beauty. Provisions delivers a comprehensive range of functional and inspired kitchen utensils and accessories. Each piece features smooth acacia wood handles or bases.

OTTAWA RANGE

Made of durable stoneware and featuring an organic shape and rustic edges, each piece in the Ottawa collection also displays gentle ridging.

NOURISH RANGE

Ecology's Nourish collection ensures your food prep will have you smiling every time you open the fridge. The glass bases are oven, microwave and freezer safe so you can cook, serve and reheat all from the one beautifully designed piece.

SIGNATURE

In delivering Signature, Ecology have reinvented their very first range introduced in 2008. This versatile bakeware collection features the original, well-loved shapes with updated elements including embossed handles and double raised lines for a modern edge that lets you go straight from oven to table.

PANTRY RANGE

Leave the pantry open for all to see with Ecology's lust-have Pantry collection. Made from light-weight borosilicate glass - offering superior clarity - these canisters will tidy your space without adding unnecessary weight.
